

Motivational Interviewing for Health and Service Providers

THE EXPANDING
HOPE PROJECT

This three part series includes both online and in-person training in Motivational Interviewing (MI) Techniques to improve knowledge and effectiveness of this communication style when working with individuals with Substance Use Disorder (SUD) and Opioid Use Disorder (OUD).

Marilyn Stein, esteemed MI trainer across Pennsylvania and co-author of Motivational Interviewing Workbook for Change Agents, brings an evidence-based and adaptable Motivational Interviewing training to York County.

CE credits available! See course registration page for details.

Module 1

Why Motivational Interviewing for SUD and OUD?

Length: 1.5 hours Type: Online

This first online module is designed for service providers who want to expand their knowledge and skill in motivational interviewing to help individuals with Substance Use Disorder and Opioid Use Disorder.

Module 2 & 3

MI: Theory and Application for Change

Length: 6 hours Type: In-person

These modules are designed to understand the depth of the opioid crisis in your community while offering an opportunity to learn and practice evidence-based research on substance use disorders.

Module 4

Bringing It All Together: Practicing for Proficiency

Length: 2.5 hours Type: Online

The final online module will provide numerous opportunities to engage in the practice of MI. As you incorporate the skills and strategies into your work, the effectiveness of MI becomes apparent.
